

Accommodation

It is important to us that you are comfortable throughout your stay and as a result we have hand picked all our accommodation.

You have the option of staying in comfortably furnished hotels, living alone in a studio flat or renting a single room in a German household with or without catering.

The hosts are either families, singles, professionals or students - this option allows you to experience daily life in Germany.

Further details and prices:

www.learn-german.com/accommodation